The decision of the DRC shall, however, be subject to the approval of the BORS at the time of registration.

B. Procedure for Admission

- (I) The admission to Ph. D Programme shall be made on the basis of the eligibility as mentioned in clauses (I), (II) and (III) of statute 6 in accordance with the procedure prescribed in sub-clauses (i) to (iv) of clause (II) of statute 7. However the admission process falling under clause (IV) of statute 6 shall be as per statute 8.
- (II) The admission notification for all the Schools shall be issued by the Dean Research twice in a year and the admissions shall be made in accordance to the priority as under:

- (i) The candidates who have "qualified NET for award of JRF and Appointment as Assistant Professor and Admission to Ph.D", shall be selected at the 1st. instance/priority against available vacancies. However, where the number of vacancies is less than the number of JRF candidates, the selection shall be made through an interaction with the DRC based on the following criteria:-

S. No	Criteria	Weightage
1.	Subject knowledge	70
2.	Research aptitude	30
Total		100

- (ii) If the seats remain vacant after the selection based on sub-clause (i), the 2nd. priority shall be given to the candidates who have "qualified NET for Appointment as Assistant Professor and Admission to Ph.D", and the admission shall be based on the following criteria:-

S.No	Criteria	Weightage
1.	NET (Qualified) Score* on prorated basis	70
2.	Interaction with DRC to ascertain Subject knowledge and Research aptitude	30
Total		100

*The marks obtained in the NET by a candidate will be valid for a period of one year for admission to Ph.D. (Note: One year will be from the date of issuance of NET Certificate from the concerned agency).

- (iii) If the seats remain vacant after the selection made on the basis of sub-clause (ii), the 3rd. priority shall be given to the candidates who have “qualified SET/SLET/Previously qualified NET candidates for Appointment as Assistant Professor and Admission to Ph.D”, and the selection shall be made as per the criteria laid down in sub-clause (i).

*The marks obtained in the NET by a candidate will be valid for a period of one year for admission to Ph.D. (Note: One year will be from the date of issuance of NET Certificate from the concerned agency).

- (III) The DRC shall fill up the available vacancies priority wise as mentioned in sub clauses, (i), (ii), (iii) & (iv). The presence of Observer-cum-RPAC nominee in DRC shall be mandatory while provisionally selecting candidates for Ph.D. programme; however, marks for the interaction shall be awarded by the DRC members only.
- (IV) The tie in the marks secured by the candidates in the merit list and interaction shall be resolved on the basis of the percentage of marks secured by them in their Master's or Equivalent Degree.
- (V) The list of the qualified candidates along with the waiting list will be prepared by the DRC with the main list to be signed by the DRC members including DRC-cum-RPAC nominee and will be then forwarded by its Chairperson to the Dean of the School who after satisfying himself/herself about the fairness of the selection will recommend it for approval of Vice-Chancellor through Dean Research.
- (VI) The list of qualified candidates/waiting list will be notified by the Dean of the School concerned and will be made available on the website of the University as well as departmental website.
- (VII) The provisionally selected candidates shall be required to get all their credentials verified in the concerned Department/Centre/Institute to join the programme within stipulated time.

The mere mention of candidates name in the list of provisionally selected candidates/waiting list shall not entitle a candidate to the final selection, if he/she is either found otherwise in-eligible or there is no vacancy available in the Department/Centre/Institute or non-availability of supervisor to guide a candidate.

Note: The NET appeared score of the year (2025) shall be considered towards assessment for the selection.
